The diagram consists of a horizontal row of 20 small rectangular boxes. The first box on the left is solid black. The remaining 19 boxes are white with black outlines. Below the first four boxes, there are two more rows of boxes: the second row has four white boxes aligned under the first four, and the third row has three white boxes aligned under the first three. To the right of the main sequence, after the 18th box, the text "CD-ROM" is written in a serif font.
